

YURT LOCATION AND ORIENTATION
ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

Parties wishing to use the Yurts must become familiar with the location of and route to the Yurts as well as proper usage of Yurt equipment. Proper location of the Yurt is the individual user's responsibility and therefore is one of those risks referred to and included in the "SKI HUT ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISK FORM", which by this reference is incorporated herein and made a part hereof. BRORA has orientation workshops available to assist the individual in fulfilling this responsibility and/or arrangements can be made for an orientation tour upon three days notice to Evanston Parks and Recreation Department at (307)789-1770. For BRORA's record keeping purposes please check the appropriate sentence below regarding the users efforts to become familiar with the Yurt's location and proper usage of Yurt equipment.

_____ I have been on an orientation tour to the hut or huts being reserved

_____ I have an appointment for orientation

_____ I do not desire an orientation tour. I can locate a yurt by map or know the location and have the ability to operate yurt equipment safely.
